ALL BAKERIES TO BE PLACED stinted aid. UNDER LICENSE

Washington, November 11-Definite steps to standardize bread and lower statement: its price will be taken tomorrow when President Wilson issues a proclamation placing all bakeries under government license December 10 and subjecting them to food administration rules prescribing ingredients and weights of loaves. Prices will not be fixed, but with the standardization it filing proof. At first sight it seems is expected that natural competition and simplification of distribution will the questions shows that they are force down prices for pound loaves to simple enough for any person who late F. W. King, died at her home on seven or eight cents.

Fancy breads will be eliminated and the multitude of sizes now produced will be reduced to four with standard ingredients. The weights will be one pound, one and a half, two and four pounds.

of flour instead of an average of six pounds now used, and two pounds of vegetable oil shortening must be used. instead of six pounds of lard or oil.

The food administration expects to save 100,000,000 pounds of sugar and the same amount of lard in this way. Bakers may use only skimmed milk for bread, and rolls will be permitted only if made in standard sizes and of regulation bread dough.

SECOND DRAFT CALL

is Slated to Come in February; Wilson Puts New Machinery Into Operation.

Washington, November 10-President Wilson formally put the new machinery for the carrying out of the selective draft, bill into operation tomade public.

War Department officials estimate that the whole process can be comthat no second call will be made upon next February, as the period of classification will not begin until Decem-

The President describes the new plan of dividing all registered men not already mobilized into five classes subject to military service by classes, as being intended to produce "a erfect organization of man power."

"The selective principle must be carried to its logical conclusion," the President said, and he added that there must be a complete inventory of the qualifications of each registrant in order to determine "the place in the military, industrial or agricultural ranks of the nation in which his experience and training can best be made to serve the common good."

"Questionnaires are to be mailed by the local boards to five per cent of the registrants each day. The principal work of the legal advisory boards will thus be over in 20 days by which time all questionnaires shall be returned to the boards. Every man has seven days in which to return his questionnaires fully made out. The process of classification will begin about December 15. Eight days later the boards will begin the great process of classification, which becomes, in the words of the President, a national war undertaking of such significance as to challenge the attention and to compel the assist ance of every American."
